

I am opposed to the FCC 03-153 filing regarding unsolicited faxes. Our members depend on our organization to keep them apprised of information in a timely and efficient manner, and broadcast fax is the most expeditious and cost-effective means available for non-profit associations to communicate with their members.